

Don't we look like we just walked out of some comedy skit? I'm Darryl. And this is my other brother Darryl. I say I'm wearing one of those Motel 6 hair caps. My brother says he's practicing to be a male nurse! We're such the kidding types! OK, here's the straight scoop. I'm Brady....in the right-side shower cap and the one wide awake.

Snoozer there....in the left-side shower cap and in his favorite position.....sleeping in his bed.....is my usually playful brother Brody. Our mom was rescued while she was pregnant with us.....she was recently adopted. So we think it's our turn now! We're part Schnauzer and part, well, we don't really know. Mom took a little "walk on the wild side".....and dad split when he heard the words 'child support'. I'm about 8 months old now and I weigh 19 and 17 pounds respectively. We have natural ears and docked tails. We're also crate trained! We really like to play (all evidence to the contrary there in my brother's case!). We need to be adopted together and we prefer an all-adult home with experienced Schnauzer owners and someone at home during the day. That's not too much to ask is it? We'll bring a lot of joy and energy to your household in return!
